To All of our Colleagues at Dreyfuss:

We are currently living in a time of unprecedented upheaval in our normal business and personal lives. Daily routines have been disrupted, institutions which all of us rely on have been shuttered and our ability to interact with our coworkers, residents, and families has been greatly reduced. New policies and procedures have been implemented on a daily basis and each of us is concerned with the health of our families and loved ones.

All of this has occurred so rapidly that it has been hard to catch our breath. However, having watched the way that each of you has stepped up during this unusual time, continuing to do your regular jobs while making major adjustments to your lives, we have been very impressed by the professionalism with which you have approached this challenging time. It is during moments like this that we realize what a wonderful group of coworkers we have. We are truly grateful for the care and effort you have put into accommodating the changes necessary to operate in the face of Covid-19.

We wish to thank all of you for your hard work and dedication and wish the best for you and your families as we work through this difficult time.
